6. What are some of the key terms and conditions that I should be aware of?

• Duty of Disclosure

Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, you must take reasonable care to ensure that all your answers to the questions are to the best of your knowledge, full, complete, correct and honest. You also have a duty to inform us of any change in the details or information given to us before we issue the Policy to you, or before you renew or change any of the terms of your Policy. If you fail to do so, your Policy may be cancelled or treated as if it never existed, or your claim may be rejected or not fully paid.

Non-Consumer Insurance Contract

Pursuant to Schedule 9 of the Financial Services Act 2013, if you are applying for this insurance for purposes of your trade, business or profession, you have a duty to disclose any matter you know to be relevant to our decision in accepting the risks and determining the rates and terms of your insurance. You also have a duty to inform us of any change in the details or information given to us before we issue the Policy to you, or before you renew or change any of the terms of your Policy. If you fail to do so, your Policy may be cancelled or treated as if it never existed, or your claim may be rejected or not fully paid.

- Change in Risk

You must disclose any changes to the material facts which you know or ought to know which could affect the risk profile from time to time, if you fail to do so, your Policy may be cancelled. You must ensure that the proposal form is completed accurately as it forms the basis of the insurance contract. You must inform us in writing on any material changes during the Policy period so that the necessary amendments are endorsed to your Policy.

- Excess / Deductible

This is the amount you have to bear in the event of a claim occur (if applicable).

- Premium Warranty

The premium due must be paid and received by us within sixty (60) days from the coverage commencement date. Failure to pay the premium within this period, may result in the Policy being automatically cancelled. We shall be entitled pro-rated premium for the sixty (60) days which we have provided the coverage.

- Premium Payment

Payment can be made by Cash, Cheque, Debit Card, Credit Card or Online Payment to Berjaya Sompo Insurance Berhad. Please keep a receipt of the premium paid as the proof of payment for future reference.

- Policy Renewal

Depending on the circumstances of the loss or claims made during the term of Policy, we may review the Policy terms and conditions upon renewal or decline renewal.

- Sum Insured

You must ensure that your property is insured at the appropriate amount taking into account the renovations made to your property.

You may select to insure your property at Market Value or Reinstatement Value basis:

- Market value – we will pay the cost of repairing the damaged property less the amount for wear, tear and depreciation.
- Reinstatement value – we will pay the full cost of repairing the damaged property without any deductions being made for wear, tear or depreciation, provided that the sum covered is adequate to cover the total cost of reinstating the property.

If the amount insured in your Policy is lower than the actual value at the time of loss, you will be deemed as self-insuring for the difference, i.e., in the event of loss/damage, you will have to bear a proportional share of loss. Should you insure your property at a higher sum than its actual value at the time of loss, the maximum compensation you will receive is the actual value which is the lesser amount than your sum insured.

- Claims

Upon happening of an accident which gives rise to a claim, you shall notify us in writing immediately.
